

Diversity and Inclusion Statement

At Big Bus Tours, you will always be welcomed aboard no matter what your background is. For us, advancing diversity and inclusion efforts is a core priority. While we still have work to do, we're dedicated to making people of all walks of life feel respected and welcomed at Big Bus Tours – whether you're taking a ride or making the magic happen behind the scenes – you will be treated with dignity and respect.

Big Bus Tours Limited is the largest global operator of open-top sightseeing buses cities across 4 continents, with a head office based in London. Each of the operating companies work under the same operating banner of Big Bus Tours, collectively carrying 5 million customers per annum, and employing over 2000 staff. Our supply chains consist mainly of vehicle manufacturers, sightseeing supplies manufacturers and engineering component manufacturers. We are dedicated to promoting and improving diversity and inclusion efforts amongst our employees, customers, and supply chain.
